The world of football is buzzing with excitement as major tournaments and league matches continue to captivate fans globally.

In the UEFA Champions League, the semi-final matchups have been set, with defending champions Real Madrid set to face Manchester City, while Bayern Munich will take on Paris Saint-Germain.

Both ties promise thrilling encounters, featuring some of the best talents in world football